The Ten Most Essential Serving Pieces

A full complement of serving pieces is an absolute must for proper and correct dining. Here in the Burgundy pattern are shown the ten most necessary and often used. As your entertaining needs grow, so should your collection of these pieces. Hint: Friends and relatives will find that serving pieces make wonderful presents for birthdays, anniversaries or holidays.

Why Reed & Barton?

Sterling is sterling, its quality regulated by law. Yet all sterling is not the same. Design, weight and craftsmanship make the difference, often a big difference. Reed & Barton excels in all three, with authentic patterns that time will never dim. Study the artistic details of each piece, both back and front. Feel the sumptuous weight, the perfect balance. Note the special, rich finish. Reed & Barton craftsmen have been famous for this since 1824. Small wonder then that Reed & Barton is known as the "silver of princes, presidents and potentates." And, too, many of the sterling designs have matching holloware pieces enabling you to set completely harmonious, beautiful tables.
